

MORE OPPORTUNITY

at Mercy

Learners & Leaders

Through an academic journey that is dynamic, experiential, and deeply personal, Mercy girls are empowered to pursue their passions, nurture intellectual growth, and build a strong foundation of knowledge. Students graduate ready to thrive in college and prepared for life.

Faith & Compassion

Rooted in the example of Jesus Christ and the legacy of Catherine McAuley, Mercy students are called to live with abundant love, generosity, and hospitality. They develop a personal relationship with God, expressed through service, respect for others, and a deep sense of spiritual purpose.

Belonging & Sisterhood

For over 80 years, the Mercy tradition has inspired meaningful connections rooted in unity, inclusion, and sisterhood. Today's students carry that legacy spirit forward—celebrating the richness of our diversity with empathy, cultural awareness, and a global perspective. Grounded in a community of infinite connection, they are uplifted by generations of Mercy Women Who Make a Difference.

Confidence & Curiosity

Mercy students set ambitious goals and grow in resilience within a culture of excellence and critical thinking. They learn to approach new experiences with curiosity, courage, and confidence in their voice. Throughout their transformative time at Mercy, they cultivate character, develop essential skills, and strengthen emotional intelligence—embracing discovery and a lifelong love of learning.
