A Legacy of Mercy: Honoring 80 Years of Faith, Leadership, and Purpose

As Mercy High School celebrates 80 years of educating women of faith, compassion, and courage, we pause to reflect on the extraordinary legacy that began with a daring vision and continues to shape generations.

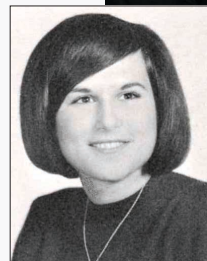

80 years ago, a courageous group of Sisters of Mercy stood at the corner of Southfield and Outer Drive in Detroit with a bold mission: to educate young women of diverse backgrounds to excel academically, serve compassionately, and lead courageously. Their vision, grounded in the belief of our Founder The Venerable Catherine McAuley that “no work of charity can be more productive of good to society than the careful instruction of women,” remains at the heart of all we do today. From our earliest graduates to our most recent Mercy women, the fruits of that vision shine brightly.

Mercy's story has always been one of sisterhood, growth, and grace. Within our walls, students discover not only rigorous academics but also the deeper call to integrity, empathy, and leadership. Mercy is a place where hospitality and compassion are not just values we teach, they are ways of life.

Our faculty and staff, past and present, embody this mission daily. Their devotion to nurturing young women is the reason we stand strong today. Our alumnae are Mercy's living legacy, carrying forward our values into the world and reminding us that the impact of a Mercy education knows no bounds.

As we celebrate this milestone, we are also building the Mercy of tomorrow. Our community's generosity has allowed us to enhance our campus in meaningful ways; from the creation of a Dublin-inspired tea parlor and a vibrant spirit shop, to the renovation of athletic spaces and the establishment of the Mercy Athletic Hall of Fame.

The revitalized M-Hub now connects Mercy women across generations, and improvements to classrooms and facilities continue to make our school an inspiring place to learn and lead. Our main entrance renovation project will soon welcome visitors with beauty, safety, and a reflection of our Catholic identity, featuring stained glass from the Sisters' chapel and a renewed spirit of hospitality.

We are also blessed by the Sisters of Mercy's gift of 34 additional acres of land, expanding our campus to 76 acres of natural beauty, reflection, and recreation. The restored Our Lady of Peace statue, now gracing our front Flagpole entrance, reminds us daily that Mercy is under the loving protection of our patroness.

As a school, we remain deeply committed to ensuring that all those who desire a Mercy education can have one. Each year we give over a million dollars of Tuition Assistance. Our generous donors combined with good investments have strengthened our endowment. We are strong financially because of good stewardship of funds we receive. With your partnership, we will continue to build not only facilities, but futures.

As we reflect on eight remarkable decades, one truth endures: the world needs women of Mercy now more than ever. Guided by faith and inspired by our mission, Mercy High School continues to form leaders who will bring light, compassion, and justice to the world.

To our community of alumnae, parents, staff, students, and friends: THANK YOU for sustaining this sacred legacy through your prayers, generosity, and love.

As I prepare to retire in June 2026, my heart is filled with gratitude. Serving as President of Mercy High School for the past 16 years has been the honor of a lifetime. Together, we have upheld the vision of the Sisters of Mercy, advanced the mission of Catholic education, and watched thousands of young women become confident, compassionate leaders.

May this 80th anniversary remind us not only of where we have been, but of all that lies ahead. Let our hearts be guided by truth, informed by Mercy, and filled with peace and joy. The story of Mercy High School continues...and its brightest chapters are still to come.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. CHERYL KREGER'S 16 YEARS OF MERCY

LEADERSHIP, HEART & HOSPITALITY

As an alumna and Sister of Mercy Associate, Dr. Cheryl Kreger '66 has been at the heart of Mercy High School, a steady, compassionate, and faith-filled presence whose leadership has shaped a generation of Mercy women. As she prepares to retire, we pause to celebrate her extraordinary service and the countless ways she has brought Mercy's mission to life.

Cheryl's leadership is the kind that goes far beyond meetings and titles. You'll find her cheering from the stands at athletic events, smiling in the audience at school plays, chatting with students in the halls, or bringing her famous chocolate chip cookies to the Val/Sal Tea—an act of hospitality that perfectly captures the spirit of Mercy.

Rooted deeply in Catherine McAuley's vision, Cheryl has led with faith, warmth, and conviction. Every decision she makes, from major institutional initiatives to small moments of kindness, reflects Mercy's enduring values of compassion, service, and dignity.

Mercy is more than a workplace for Cheryl; it is home. An alumna, educator, and longtime supporter, she has given back to Mercy in every imaginable way. With her husband John, she helped establish the Mercy Athletic Hall of Fame, celebrating the achievements of our student-athletes and reconnecting alumnae through sport and spirit.

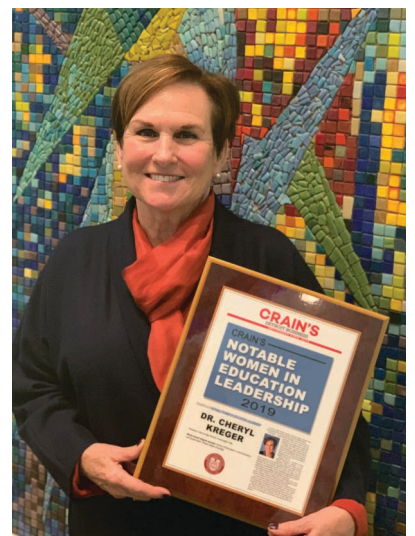

Her commitment extends far beyond financial gifts; it is woven into every facet of school life. Her strategic and faith-filled guidance has strengthened the school's academic programs, expanded facilities, and deepened Mercy's connection to its Catholic identity and the Sisters of Mercy.

Whether she is greeting students at the door, celebrating an alumna's success, or sharing a laugh with colleagues, Cheryl's warmth radiates the essence of Mercy hospitality. She has reminded us that leadership rooted in faith and kindness is both powerful and transformative.

We give thanks for all that Dr. Kreger has built, not only in programs and partnerships, but in people. Her faith, generosity, and unwavering belief in the potential of young women will continue to guide Mercy for generations to come.

HONORING THE LEADERS WHO SHAPED MERCY

As we celebrate 80 years of Mercy High School, we give thanks for the visionary women who have led our community with faith, wisdom, and compassion. From our founding Sisters of Mercy to today's dedicated leaders, each President and Principal has carried forward the mission to educate young women. Their stewardship has strengthened the Mercy tradition ensuring that generations of Mercy girls continue to learn, lead, and serve with purpose.

With a warm and relatable approach, she empowered our young women to navigate life with strength, purpose, and faith.

Merci, Madame!

Celebrating 50 Years of Joyce Smetanka Campbell at Mercy

For 50 remarkable years, Madame Joyce Campbell has inspired generations of Mercy students to fall in love with the French language and culture. As Chair of the World Languages Department, she leads a vibrant team of educators offering French, Spanish, and Latin at every level, including Advanced Placement. She moderates the French Honor Society and French Club, fostering a community that celebrates the beauty, diversity, and global influence of the Francophone world.

“French has always been more than a subject — it is a doorway to art, cuisine, history, travel, and human connection,” she reflects. “The language brings people together across geography and time, and it allows me to open the world to my students in ways that feel both beautiful and meaningful.”

Throughout her career, Madame Campbell has championed innovation and excellence. She helped establish two language labs at Mercy and continues to weave technology and creativity into her instruction. Her classroom is a place where la langue française comes alive through lessons on theater, art, poetry, and architecture; immersive cultural experiences; and decades of memories from 24 student trips to France with 525 participants. She has also led students to the Detroit Institute of Arts, the Fisher Theatre, the Detroit Opera House, and local French restaurants, along with Mercy’s annual National French Week celebrations sponsored by the AATF.

“In the 1990s and early 2000s, the Drama Studio became something magical each December when it transformed into Le Café-Club Paradis,” she recalls. “With the help of my family, friends, and enthusiastic students, we created a little corner of Paris right inside Mercy — a boulangerie, a pâtisserie, a fruit market, even a boucherie.”

Today, National French Week remains a beloved tradition featuring morning prayers and trivia, a t-shirt contest, art and music, crêpes, and a special dinner at Cuisine Detroit. A highlight this year was a macaron-making demonstration by alumna Tina Aiello Sturgis '90, who studied French pastry in Paris.

Madame Campbell’s influence extends well beyond the classroom. Many of her former students now serve in diplomacy, law, business, education, and other fields, carrying with them the cultural awareness and leadership foundations she helped build. Among her most cherished memories is reconnecting in Paris with alumna Meghan Ronayne Dubois '11, who was living and working there through a special company program. Meghan was the first to request France as her assignment from her strong French skills and cultural confidence rooted in her years at Mercy.

"When we met in Paris, it was a full-circle moment," Madame Campbell shares. "To walk the city with a former student — now a poised professional speaking fluent French — was one of the greatest joys of my career."

In addition to her work with students, Madame Campbell has shared her expertise with language educators nationwide. She has presented at local, state, regional, and national conferences — including Oakland Schools, the Michigan World Language Association, the Central States Conference, and the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages — offering workshops on how Project-Based Learning enhances target-language proficiency.

Her professional achievements are both extensive and deeply earned. Madame Campbell was recently recognized as one of just eight Outstanding French Honor Society Moderators nationwide by the American Association of Teachers of French (AATF). She has also been invited to present at the Central States Foreign Language Teachers Conference, sharing innovative approaches to using AI in project-based French learning. Past honors include being named Mercy’s Teacher of the Year (2009), Michigan World Language Association Teacher of the Year (1995), recipient of the Intercultural Student Experiences Language Matters Award (2008), and the MIWLA Barbara Ort-Smith Award (2018). Her affiliations span the AATF, the French Institute Alliance Française of Michigan, the Oakland Schools World Language Leaders Advisory Council, and the Central States Conference.

"Some of my favorite moments as a teacher happen when I watch students discover something new," she says. "The first time they hold a real conversation, taste a warm crêpe, interpret an Impressionist painting, recognize a lyric in a French song, or stand in awe beneath the Eiffel Tower. Their joy fuels my own passion."

Investing in the Future of French at Mercy

A new scholarship has been established to support Mercy students committed to studying French. This scholarship reflects the deep care of lead donor Rosemary Ebner Pomeroy '73 and her fellow contributors who studied French in the 1970s under Patricia Small, Mrs. Riffle and Sister Joel. While the size of the French program has decreased over time, its impact remains strong, and this scholarship aims to ensure that future generations of students can continue to experience the richness of French language and culture.

You're invited to help strengthen and contribute to this scholarship's growth with the goal of making it a permanent endowment at Mercy.

MERCY GOES GLOBAL: LANGUAGE, LEARNING, ADVENTURE & SERVICE

From Rome to Paris to the Rio Grande Valley, Mercy students spent their spring and summer breaks learning, serving, and exploring the world beyond the classroom. Whether through language immersion or faith-centered service, each journey reflected Mercy's spirit and mission.

Exploring the Roman World: Latin Students Abroad

Over Easter 2025, Mercy Latin students joined Brother Rice students on an unforgettable 12-day journey through Italy, France, and Belgium. From exploring the Vatican Museums and Colosseum to studying masterpieces at the Louvre and Royal Museum of Fine Arts, students deepened their understanding of classical history and the enduring influence of Latin. Highlights included creating frescoes in Florence, biking through Rome, and offering prayer in the newly reopened Notre-Dame Cathedral.

Le Grand Voyage: French Students in France

Over the summer, 3rd and 4th-year French students, led by Madame Joyce Campbell, embarked on Le Grand Voyage: a cultural and linguistic adventure through Normandy, the Loire Valley, Paris, and Provence. Students visited D-Day beaches, royal châteaux, and Versailles, practiced their French at local markets, and even learned to make macarons with a Parisian baker. In Provence and Nice, they painted like Cézanne, swam in the Mediterranean, and explored French artistry through a perfume-making workshop.

Spanish Students in Spain & Morocco

In June, Mercy Spanish students, accompanied by Mrs. Julia Cilona, traveled through Granada, Seville, and the Costa del Sol, immersing themselves in Spain's vibrant culture and language. Their adventure concluded with a day trip to Tangier, Morocco, where they rode camels, sampled Moroccan cuisine, and explored bustling markets. It was an unforgettable cross-cultural experience linking continents and communities.

Serving with Compassion: Summer Immersion Trips

Two groups of Mercy students also spent their summer break living out the Gospel through service and solidarity.

In Texas, students and staff Holly Markiecki-Bennetts and Dr. Alison Kline-Kator '97 partnered with Arise Adelante, an organization founded by Sister of Mercy Gerrie Naughton to empower women and children in the Rio Grande Valley. Working alongside Mercy schools from across the country, they built relationships, led youth activities, and deepened their understanding of the Mercy mission.

Mercy staff Curt Klueg and Brenda Bagazinski, along with six students, spent a powerful week at Nazareth Farm in West Virginia, serving others and living out the Gospel through community, simplicity, prayer, and service. Alongside other volunteers, they helped repair homes for local residents, embraced Appalachian culture, and encountered God through the meaningful relationships formed throughout the week.

Mercy Honorees Shine in 2025 Catholic High School League Hall of Fame

The Catholic High School League (CHSL) continues its proud tradition of recognizing excellence in athletics and leadership, and this year's 2025 Hall of Fame Induction was especially meaningful for the Mercy community.

Congratulations to Mercy High School President Dr. Cheryl Delaney Kreger '66, who was honored as the Catholic League & Catholic Coaches Association 2025 Person of the Year — the highest distinction bestowed by the CHSL. Named in memory of the late legendary coach Ed Lauer, this award recognizes individuals whose lifelong dedication has profoundly influenced Catholic education and athletics.

"Your support of the Catholic League and dedication to young people over the last several years is exemplary," shared Vic Michaels, Director of the Catholic High School League.

Four outstanding alumnae athletes were also inducted into the 2025 CHSL Hall of Fame, each continuing their athletic success at the collegiate level and exemplifying Mercy's legacy of excellence.

- Charlie Atiemo '21 — A standout volleyball player at Northern Illinois University, Charlie became the 23rd player in program history to surpass 1,000 career kills.
- Julia Bishop '21 — Continuing her volleyball career at Michigan State University, Julia led the Spartans in assists during both the 2023 and 2024 seasons and became just the fourth player in MSU history to serve as a three-year team captain.
- Jess Mruzik '20 — After three stellar seasons at the University of Michigan, Jess transferred to Penn State University, where she helped lead the Nittany Lions to the 2024 NCAA Volleyball Championship and was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player.
- Jillian Smith '21 — A lacrosse star at the University of Michigan, Jill earned First Team All-Big Ten honors in 2023 and 2024 and now holds the title of the program's all-time points leader.

These remarkable women embody the spirit of Mercy through their dedication, perseverance, and leadership both on and off the field.

CELEBRATING 80 YEARS OF MERCY

Our Mercy community came together to celebrate 80 incredible years of faith, learning, and sisterhood!

With Archbishop Edward J. Weisenburger and the Sisters of Mercy joining us, October 18th was a day filled with joy, reflection, and gratitude. The Archbishop led us in a beautiful liturgy that united generations of the Mercy family and warmly greeted guests throughout the celebration. Visitors enjoyed campus tours guided by engaging students, whose enthusiasm and insight made the experience especially meaningful. Following Mass, Dr. Cheryl Kreger '66 delivered a moving Legacy of Mercy address, reflecting on the enduring power of Mercy and the values that continue to shape generations.

Guests were treated to a moving performance of Ave Maria by current and former Mercyaires, followed by a festive dinner, music and dancing. There were plenty of photos, laughter, and hugs shared among alumnae, students, faculty (past and present), parents, donors, and friends.

B.A.S.E. gathered for the 2nd Annual Black Alumnae & Friends Reunion on October 17th — an evening filled with laughter, fellowship, and Mercy sisterhood. Guests enjoyed dinner, conversation, and joyful connection as they celebrated the bonds that make our Mercy community so special.

The reunion weekend was a meaningful reminder of what makes Mercy so special: our faith-filled connection, compassionate community, and 80 years of excellence. Thank you to everyone who helped make this milestone celebration truly unforgettable!

TRIPLE LEGACY: MERCY RUNS IN THE FAMILY

The Hesano–Thompson Family

Vicki Turowski Hesano '70 treasures her memories of the Mercy nuns, especially Sister Victorine on her scooter. Mercy taught her to respect others, give back, and believe she could accomplish anything. The friendships she formed remain strong today, and she and her husband are proud to pass on their Catholic traditions to the next generation.

Gina Hesano Thompson '96 remembers the laughter and stories shared in the Mercy cafeteria. She feels Mercy challenged her, strengthened her faith, and prepared her well for Michigan State and beyond.

Emily Thompson '29 is enjoying her first year and was a top seller in the Maroon & Gold fundraiser. She's involved in Business Professionals of America and excited for Spring tennis. She's loving Mercy and the new friendships she's forming.

The Nemes–Langley Family

Anne Wynsberge Nemes '68 is thankful her parents gave her the opportunity to attend Mercy and deeply grateful that both her daughter and granddaughter share her Mercy experience. Mercy gave her lifelong friendships, a love of learning, and a commitment to service. Her advice to today's students: get involved, never stop learning, and remember - Once a Mercy Girl, Always a Mercy Girl!

Nadine Nemes Langley '92 treasures the bond of being a Mercy girl across three generations. Seeing her daughter redesign her own white graduation dress became a reminder that while each path is unique, they're all connected by the same love, faith, and Mercy spirit. Her time at Mercy, friends, teammates, and supportive staff, helped shape who she is today and taught her that no matter where life takes you, Mercy will always feel like home.

Mattie Langley '23 shares that Mercy strengthened her confidence and taught her she could accomplish anything with determination. She believes the sisterhood, community, and sense of belonging remain just as strong today as in her mother's and grandmother's time. Sharing the Mercy experience across generations makes her feel part of something bigger that connects Mercy women for life.

The Drewniak–Prescott Family

Marilou Schmidt Drewniak '61 maintains a strong connection to Mercy, celebrating Mother's Day Masses, Grandparent Masses, Legacy Dinners, and the annual Memorial Mass. She's grateful for the education that prepared her for college, the influence of Sister Ignatius on her faith, and the lifelong friends she made. Favorite memories include gym class bloomers, Father-Daughter dances, and walking through the Rose Arbor and Grotto at graduation. She is proud to be among the "Women Who Make a Difference."

Lynn Drewniak Prescott '97 shares that Mercy helped shape her into a compassionate, confident woman. The staff taught values far beyond the classroom, and she is grateful that those same beliefs continue today. She already sees the positive impact Mercy is having on her daughter.

Molly Prescott '28 describes Mercy as encouraging, inviting, and friendly. She feels supported by teachers and staff and is grateful for the wonderful friendships she has made.

Sisterhood Day

We were delighted to welcome more than 70 prospective students for Sisterhood Day. This special event gave girls the chance to experience Mercy spirit and sisterhood firsthand. The morning included breakfast, a school tour, and the opportunity to step into class. They also connected with Mission & Ministry and Athletics before heading home with some Mercy gear and lots of excitement about their future as Marlins!

Alumnae daughters are invited to a special Legacy Tour during our upcoming Open House on Sunday, March 1, at 12:30 p.m. Future Marlins in 7th and 8th grade can also sign up to shadow a student and experience Mercy for a day! Learn more at mhsmi.org/admissions.

Annual Legacy Dinner

This fall, Mercy proudly welcomed our Legacy families to the annual Legacy Dinner, a cherished tradition celebrating the generations of women who continue to pass on the gift of a Mercy education. Grandmothers, mothers, aunts, and daughters gathered for a beautiful evening honoring the deep bonds, shared values, and enduring sisterhood that make Mercy a family tradition.

Katie Mato Androff '99, Jeriesha Bridges '96, and Melanie Wildern Gerzema '89, shared powerful reflections on the influence of Mercy in their lives and the meaning of carrying this legacy forward.

A highlight of the evening was the pinning ceremony, where Legacy students received a special memento symbolizing the love that brought them to Mercy, the responsibility of deep tradition, and the pride of belonging to generations of Mercy women.

A Shared Celebration

By Nadine Frazier Maynard '63

This past September was a truly special moment for me — I turned 80 the very same month Mercy High School celebrated 80 years! It felt like a beautiful full-circle connection to a place that has meant so much in my life.

To mark the occasion, I chose to give $80,000 to Mercy to help enhance the visitor entrance as part of a capital project. Mercy has always opened its doors with warmth and welcome, and I wanted to contribute to that feeling in a lasting and beautiful way.

Mercy has nurtured who I am in countless ways by deepening my faith, building my confidence, and inspiring a lifelong commitment to service and the values of Catherine McAuley. In 2016, I created the Maynard HOPE Scholarship, an endowed fund that helps make a Mercy education possible for a deserving student each year. Getting to know my scholarship recipient has been such a joy! Watching her grow and succeed reminds me that Mercy's spirit is alive and thriving in today's young women.

As I look back over 80 years of my life, and Mercy looks forward to its next 80, I'm filled with gratitude and hope.

I'm proud to be part of a legacy that continues to grow, inspire, and nurture generations of "Women Making a Difference."

A LEGACY OF FAITH AND FAMILY: HONORING JUDY EWALD

For more than four decades, generations of Mercy girls have been inspired by the faith, compassion, and gentle wisdom of Mrs. Judy Ewald, a beloved religion teacher whose impact reaches far beyond the classroom. Judy's lessons were never confined to theology books — she modeled what it means to live Mercy values every day: faith, compassion, service, and love.

Now, as she continues to shape the future of Mercy in new ways, Judy has established The Mrs. Ewald Endowment, ensuring that her life's work of nurturing faith and education will bless students for years to come. The endowment will support the mission she so deeply believes in: forming women who make a difference through faith-filled leadership, service to others and healthy relationships.

Judy's Mercy story is a family story, too. Her three daughters Ann-Margret Ewald Manley '83, Dr. Jeni Ewald Wenson '85, and Dr. Stephanie Ewald Bellisario '89, and daughter-in-law Luanne Thomas Ewald '87 are all proud Mercy alumnae and carry the lessons of their mother's faith and example into their own lives. Today, that legacy extends to Judy's granddaughters — Samantha Wenson Zinnecker '11, Josephine Wenson '17, Francesca Bellisario '18, Sophia Bellisario '19, Gianna Bellisario '21, Maggie Ewald '18 and Mollie Ewald '21 — who have also walked the halls of Mercy, sharing in the same traditions, friendships, and spirit that shaped their mother and grandmother before them.

"I've always believed that Mercy isn't just a school, it's a family," Judy reflects. "It's a safe place where faith and love take root and grow. To see my daughters and granddaughters find their own Mercy journeys has been one of the greatest blessings of my life."

Through The Mrs. Ewald Endowment, Judy's devotion to Mercy will continue to uplift future generations of students just as her warmth and wisdom have inspired so many already. Her legacy reminds us that the most meaningful lessons come not only from what we teach, but from how we love.

EMPOWER TOMORROW - MAKE A LASTING DIFFERENCE WITH A PLANNED GIFT

80 for 80 Giving Challenge

In celebration of our 80th Anniversary, we launched our 80 for 80 Planned Giving Challenge, with a goal of securing 80 new planned gifts to honor this milestone year. Making a planned gift (whether through your will, retirement account, or life insurance) costs nothing today but ensures that Mercy continues to empower young women for generations to come.

Thanks to a generous $80,000 matching challenge, each new planned gift will also unlock $1,000 to be immediately directed to a Mercy program or initiative of your choice.

If you've already made a planned gift, thank you. We encourage you to share your intentions so we can welcome you into the Callaghan Legacy Society, send you a token of our appreciation, and recognize your generosity in our Honor Roll of Donors (as always, we honor all requests for anonymity).

Since 1945, Mercy has built a legacy of academic excellence, personal growth, leadership, and service. With your help, Mercy's legacy will endure for years to come.

Learn more about Planned Giving at mhsmi.org/planned-giving. To notify us of your planned gift, please contact advancement@mhsmi.org or 248-893-3538.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

Did you know?

Mercy's Founder, The Venerable Catherine McAuley, was empowered to open the first House of Mercy thanks to the generosity of family friends.

Orphaned at a young age, Catherine McAuley was welcomed into the home of William and Catherine Callaghan. Loving her like a daughter, they named her the sole heir to their estate. Catherine used her inheritance to build a home to shelter, feed, and educate women in need, later founding the Sisters of Mercy.

Invest in Excellence: Mercy Entryway Project

We are excited to share a vision for a renewed Mercy entryway, one that reflects our values, strengthens our community, and enhances the safety and experience of everyone who walks through our doors.

Project Impact

Enhanced Security

The updated entryway will thoughtfully balance hospitality with safety. A new vestibule will help guide visitors through a secure, clearly defined point of entry while maintaining a warm and welcoming first impression that reflects Mercy's spirit of hospitality. Together, these enhancements will provide added reassurance for parents, staff, and students without changing the friendly experience guests expect when they arrive.

Improved Aesthetic & Catholic Identity

Beyond safety, the entrance will be designed to enhance the visual appeal of our campus. The new design will include a beautiful statue of Catherine McAuley, a backlit Sisters of Mercy cross, modern architecture, and welcoming signage that reflects our spirituality and Core Values.

Competitive Advantage

In a competitive educational landscape, the appearance and functionality of our facilities play a crucial role in attracting new students. A secure entrance demonstrates our dedication to providing a safe and nurturing environment. By enhancing our curb appeal, we position Mercy as a leading choice for families seeking the best educational experience for their daughters.

Long-Term Investment

A well-designed, secure entryway is a long-term investment that will serve our community for years to come. It will contribute to the overall value of our campus, supporting our mission to provide an exceptional educational experience.

Contact Maureen Stirling Duncan '96 in the Advancement Office at advancement@mhsmi.org or 248-893-3538 to support the Entryway Project.

She always said, "To educate a man is a good and noble thing, but to educate a woman is to educate a whole family." Her passion, generosity, kind hearted spirit, and commitment to Mercy will be greatly missed. As a founding member of our Alumnae Board, her wisdom, dedication, and joyful spirit shaped so much of what our alumnae programs are today. She was a steadfast champion of our mission and a shining example of what it means to be a Mercy Girl - compassionate, committed, and always lifting others up. She was a woman who truly Made A Difference!
